

Farewell To Nova Scotia

VERSE 1

<sup>D</sup>
The sun was setting in the west,
<sup>F#m</sup>
And the birds were singing on ev'ry tree;
<sup>Bm G Bm</sup>
All nature seemed inclined for to rest,
<sup>D A</sup>
But still there was no rest for me.-
<sup>Bm Em Bm Em Bm</sup>

CHORUS

<sup>G</sup>
So, farewell to Nova Scotia, you sea-bound coast,
<sup>D F#m</sup>
Let your mountains dark and dreary be;
<sup>Bm G Bm</sup>
While when I am far away on the briny ocean tossed,
<sup>D A A</sup>
Will you ever heave a sigh or a wish for me?
<sup>Bm Em Bm Em Bm</sup>

VERSE 2

I have three brothers and they are at rest,
And their arms are folded across their breast,
While a poor simple sailor just like me,
Must be tossed and driven on a cruel north sea.

INSTRUMENTAL(CHORUS)

CHORUS

<sup>G</sup>
So, farewell to Nova Scotia, you sea-bound coast,
<sup>D F#m</sup>
Let your mountains dark and dreary be;
<sup>Bm G Bm</sup>
While when I am far away on the briny ocean tossed,
<sup>D A A</sup>
Will you ever heave a sigh or a wish for me?

Will you ever heave a sigh or a wish for me?
